

Loyola students may cross-enroll through the New Orleans Consortium at Dillard, Tulane, and Xavier Universities and Notre Dame Seminary if they take at least 12 credit hours at Loyola and the course is not offered here. The process goes like this:

1. Take a look at the course listings of the school of interest.
  - a. Tulane: <https://classschedule.tulane.edu/Search.aspx>.
  - b. Dillard: <https://mydu.dillard.edu/ics/>
  - c. Xavier: <http://catalog.xavier.edu/index.php?catoid=17>
  - d. Notre Dame: <https://nds.edu/registrar/>
2. Acquire the Consortium Form from your respective college's dean's office (CAS/HNS, CMFA, CoB, etc.).
3. Fill out the Consortium Form and have your academic advisor sign it.
4. Seek out and obtain the signature and permission of your college's associate dean.
5. Bring the completed form to Loyola's Office of Student Records located on the second floor of Thomas Hall.
6. Bring the completed form to the cross-enrolled school's Registrar Office. For example, Tulane's is located on the first floor of Gibson Hall (the building facing St. Charles Ave).
