1. Indemnification

A. Generally. To the fullest extent authorized or permitted by La. Rev. Stat. 12:227, as the same may hereafter be amended to broaden such authority, or as otherwise permitted by law, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to make a party to any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative (including any action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that they are or were a trustee, director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a trustee, director, officer, employee or agent of another business, foreign or nonprofit corporation, partnership, joint venture or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonable incurred by such trustee in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reason- ably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such con- duct was unlawful; provided that in case of actions by or in the right of the Corporation, the indemnity shall be limited to expenses (including attorneys’ fees and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of the Board of Trustees, the estimated expense of litigating the action to conclusion) actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, and no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged (by a court of competent jurisdiction after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom) to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of their duty to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case they are fairly and reason- ably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not of itself create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which they are reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that their conduct was unlawful.
B. Indemnity for Expenses. To the extent that a Trustee, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any such action, suit or proceeding, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, they shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys’ fees) actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection therewith.

E. Indemnification Not Exclusive. The indemnification provided for this Section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any person indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, authorization of Members or disinterested Trustees or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacity and as to a person who has ceased to be a Trustee, director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of their heirs and legal representatives.

F. Effect of Repeal or Amendment. Neither the repeal of nor any amendment to this Section shall apply to or have any effect on the obligation of the Corporation or on the entitlement of any person to indemnification in accordance with this Section for or with respect to any action, suit or proceeding, whenever brought or asserted, arising out of any act or omission of such person occurring prior to such repeal or amendment, absent the express consent of such a person, or of the person’s heirs or legal representatives, to such repeal or amendment.
2. Limitation of Liability

No Trustee or officer of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation or its Members for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a Trustee or officer, except in the case of breach of the Trustee’s or officer’s duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its Members; acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; or any transaction from which the Trustee or officer derived an improper personal benefit. Neither the repeal or nor any amendment to this Section shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any Trustee or officer of the Corporation for or with respect to any act or omission of such Trustee or officer occurring prior to such repeal or amendment, absent the express consent of such a trustee or officer, or of the trustee’s or officer’s heirs or legal representatives, to such repeal or amendment.
